

APR 11 1980
ON PAGE 28

BOSTON GLOBE
8 November 1980

US/WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

US silent on spy charges

WASHINGTON — The Justice Department declined yesterday to comment on a report that it was investigating six Administration officials suspected of being Soviet spies. The report, by columnist Jack Anderson, published yesterday, quoted Justice Department sources as saying that the department had files on at least three officials "and there may be as many a half-a-dozen." (Reuter)